DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election with traverse of compound 5 (species) in the reply filed on September 8, 2006 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that restriction (species) requirement does not conform to US patent policy as set forth by the MPEP. This is not found persuasive. The examiner apologizes for any ambiguity of the prior office action. There was species requirement set forth (not a restriction between Inventions I and II).

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-2 and 21-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Ganguly et al. US 6,277,830 (Ganguly).

Ganguly teaches 5'-amino acid esters of ribavirin represented by formula I or a pharmaceutically acceptable salt thereof, e.g. trifluoroacetate, tosylate, mesylate, and chloride (Abstract). Ganguly also teaches pharmaceutical compositions containing them and methods of treating patients having viral infections by administering a therapeutically effective amount of a ribavirin derivative, alone or in combination with a therapeutically effective amount of interferon-alpha.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102/103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

6. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

7. Claims 9-11 and 13-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Ganguly et al. US 6,277,830 (Ganguly).

Ganguly teaches 5'-amino acid esters of ribavirin represented by formula I or a pharmaceutically acceptable salt thereof, e.g. trifluoroacetate, tosylate, mesylate, and chloride (Abstract; columns 1-2). Ganguly also teaches pharmaceutical compositions containing them and methods of treating patients having viral infections by administering a therapeutically effective amount of a ribavirin derivative, alone or in combination with a therapeutically effective amount of interferon-alpha, including pegylated interferon-alpha-2a and pegylated interferon-alpha-2b (column 3, lines 20-37). The actual dosage employed may be varied depending upon the requirements of the patient and the severity of the condition being treated (column 11, lines 5-31). Determination of the proper dosage regimen for a particular situation is within the skill of the art. For convenience, the total daily dosage may be divided and administered in portions during the day as required. A typical recommended daily dosage regimen for oral administration can range from about 1 mg/kg/day to about 1000 mg/kg/day, in two to four divided doses.

Ganguly is silent on modulating Th1 and Th2 immune activity; however, products of identical chemical composition can not have mutually exclusive properties. A chemical composition and its properties are inseparable. Therefore, if the prior art teaches the identical chemical structure, the properties applicant discloses and/or claims are necessarily present.

Conclusion

8. Claims 1-2, 9-11, and 13-22 are pending. Claims 1-2, 9-11, and 13-22 are rejected. No claims are allowed.
